Debbie McComber retires as MCK Cashier

For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 4, Tsothohrhkó:wa/January 2023) The

The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) wishes to congratulate Deborah “Debbie” McComber on her retirement. She will leave her position as Cashier at the MCK main office on Thursday, January 5th, after a career of nearly 19 years.

Debbie began her career at the MCK as a receptionist. After working as mail clerk for one year, she settled in as the friendly face of the Cashier’s booth at the main reception. She was a constant presence for many years and always conducted herself professionally, usually sharing a laugh with her colleagues and clients.

The MCK thanks Debbie for her years of service and wishes her all the best in her well-earned retirement!
