MCK delegation to take part in Iroquois Caucus

For immediate release

(12, Tsiothóhrkó:wa /January 2005) Chiefs Martin Leborgne and Keith Myiow will be attending a meeting in Tyendinega on Thursday and Friday (13-14, Tsiothóhrkó:wa/January). They will be accompanied by Jeffrey Diabo; all three are members of the MCK's Traditional Government Working Group.

The Iroquois Caucus, which consists of Chiefs and technicians from various Iroquoian communities, is being developed as a forum to discuss various issues. The purpose of this week's meeting is to create a working group of chiefs and technicians who would be responsible for identifying issues that are common to the communities.

Representatives of Akwesasne, Wahta and Oneida of the Thames (Ontario) have also confirmed their attendance.
