Quarry deal off

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – Tsothohrhkó:wa/January 2007) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawake (MCK) announced that talks to purchase the Beauvais Quarry have ended.

The MCK and Tewatohnhi'saktha were in discussions with owner Viateur (Victor) Beauvais since last year. Unfortunately, for a number of reasons, a deal could not be concluded.

The quarry is situated on 79.3 acres of land near the eastern boundary of Kahnawake close to Highway 30.

Had the purchase been completed, the MCK and Tewatohnhi'saktha would have had a 50/50 equity/ownership share in the business on behalf of the community.
