Local mayors in Kahnawá:ke for meeting

For immediate release

(20, Tiothohrhkó:wa/January 2005) Mayors from surrounding communities met at the Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke this morning to discuss issues common to Kahnawá:ke and its neighbors. The communities are members of the Municipalité Régionale de Compté de Roussillon (MRC).

Kahnawá:ke, though not an official member, has been working with the MRC towards “building bridges” with neighboring communities.

“The main reason the mayors are here today is to form an official liaison committee to discuss intergovernmental relations between the communities,” said Grand Chief Michael Ahríhron Delisle, Jr.

The committee is expected to include the Grand Chief, Chiefs Peter Paul and Peggy Mayo along with mayors Jocelyne Bates of St. Catherine, George Gagné of Delson and Sergio Pavone of Chateauguy. All were in attendance at this morning’s meeting.
