Chief to meet PQ leader

For immediate release

(26, Tiothohrhkó:wa/January 2005) Grand Chief Michael Ahríhron Delisle, Jr. will meet with Parti Québécois leader Bernard Landry tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon.

There is no formal agenda.

“The meeting is a formal re-introduction in our new respective positions,” said Chief Delisle. “Basically, we’re meeting to maintain the relationship we had in the past. Mr. Landry was the Premier of Quebec when we signed the QKR agreements and, as leader of the opposition, he continues to be an influential person in Québec’s political landscape.”

The two are scheduled to meet at 2pm in Montreal.
