Grand Chief, Ietsénhaienhs Deer in London to attend Gaming conference

For Immediate Release

(Kahnawake – 3, Enníska/February 2020) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) wishes to inform the community that Grand Chief Joseph Tokwiro Norton and Ietsénhaienhs Gina Deer are in London, England to participate in the ICE Totally Gaming conference/trade show taking place from Tuesday to Thursday, February 4 to 6.

ICE is one of the largest annual events of its kind and focuses on both land-based and online gaming. Last year's attendance was over 35,000, with over 600 exhibitors participating, including the Kahnawà:ke Gaming Commission.

World Regulatory matters, Advertising & Marketing, and Cybercrime are topics that will be at the forefront of this year's event.

"We've been attending ICE for many years," stated Grand Chief Norton. "It's one of the best conferences to network with people from all sectors of the industry. It's essential for Kahnawà:ke to stay connected in order to remain successful in this tremendously competitive industry."

Immediately following ICE, Grand Chief Norton and Ietsénhaienhs Deer will attend meetings in Jersey (one of the Channel Islands near Great Britain) to meet with the Jersey Gambling Commission.

Both will return to the MCK offices on Monday, February 10th.
