MCK receives Letter of Complaint from community member re: Education

For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 27, Enniska/February 2013) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) wishes to inform the community that it has received an official letter of complaint from a community member in regard to Education matters.

The complaint against Chiefs Gina Deer, Bobby Patton and Martin Leborgne, regarding alleged conduct, was addressed at the 25, Enniska/February Council meeting. Grand Chief Michael Ahrihron Delisle, Jr. informed the table that a letter was sent to the complainant asking for clarification on one of the demands/expectations listed in the letter. Other demands were addressed and a letter will be sent advising the complainant of the outcome.

The community will be made aware of the outcome once the process is completed.
