MCK to launch important series of consultations with community

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 6, Enniskó:wa/March 2007) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke has announced an important series of Community consultation forums to begin within the next three months.

Five issues have been identified: 1) the Seigneurie of Sault St. Louis; 2) the Creation of the Land Code/Policy; 3) Utilization of the Clan System; 4) Electoral Reform and; 5) Kahnawá:ke's Justice System.

“This is an unprecedented initiative,” said Grand Chief Michael Ahrírhon Delisle, Jr. “These files are the community's top priorities and we have an obligation to find solutions collectively. It's a big job but we're making the commitment to get it done properly.”

The official launch dates will be announced within six weeks.
