Seigneurie Historical Videos released on DVD

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 20, Ennískó:wa/March 2006) The Mohawk Council (MCK) and the Seigneurie of Sault St.Louis (SSSL) Communications Team announced today the release of all four episodes of the Seigneurie historical videos on DVD.

“The Seigneurie is a part of Kahnawá:ke and a part of our history,” said Grand Chief Michael Ahríhron Delisle, Jr. “We’ll be distributing this DVD in our continuing effort to help Kahnawakehró:non better understand just how important this is.”

The DVD contains all four episodes of the SSSL historical videos, in both English and Kanien’kéha. The four episodes were originally broadcast on Paul’s Cable in 2005.

Over the next several days, the Seigneurie Communications Team will be distributing the DVD to Kahnawá:ke’s library, schools and other organizations.
