COVID-19 Medical questions being answered

For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 26, Enniskó:wa/March 2020) The Kahnawà:ke COVID-19 Task Force is advising community members that Question and Answer options are now available for anyone seeking medical information about the virus.

The messaging functionality for the Kahnawake911 Facebook page has now been enabled. Additionally, the email address questions@mck.ca has been activated for those without access to social media.

Please note that ONLY medical questions will be answered. Once your medical question is submitted, please allow some time for medical experts to review and provide a response.

Dr. Annick Gauthier of the Kateri Memorial Hospital Centre will be live on Facebook tomorrow (Friday) to answer the first questions.

Please note that this is not a health assessment. Persons with symptoms are urged to call 811 immediately for more information.

Please check Kahnawake911 for any updates.
