PRESS RELEASE

Reminder - Draft Kahnawake Residency Law Hearing TONIGHT

For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 4, Onerahtókha/April 2019) The Kahnawà:ke Legislative Coordinating Commission (KLCC) would like to remind the community that the Community Decision Making Process Hearing for the draft Kahnawà:ke Residency Law (“the Law”) will take place tonight at Kahnawake Shakotiia’takéhnhas Community Services. The meeting will begin at 6pm and close at 8:30pm.

Discussions will continue on the Residency Permit specifically, and any other sections of the Law that the community has questions on, up to and including Obligation of Approved Kahnawà:ke Residents/Permit Holders; Ineligibility/Revocation criteria; and Complaint Driven Evictions and Removal Processes.

The Law, which has been classified as Urgent, is available for viewing by clicking this link.

Persons who are planning to participate in or attend the Hearing are being urged to examine the draft Law in advance of the meeting to familiarize themselves with the draft.
