MCK Meets with Longhouses

For immediate release

(Kahnawà:ke – 15 Onerahtókha/April 2008) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke would like to inform the Community that Chief and Council met for several hours on Saturday, April 12, 2008 with both the Longhouse on 207 and the Mohawk Trail Longhouse.

The three hour meeting centered on border crossing/identification cards, the Iroquois Caucus and the need for communication. The meeting and luncheon was held at the Mohawk Trail Longhouse.

"I am very happy this meeting was organized and held. It showed me that there is always a way to discuss issues of mutual importance," said the Grand Chief Mike Ahrírhon Delisle Jr. "I believe the meeting had some very good discussion and I hope we meet again soon to continue this open, direct line of communication."
