Community Review – Code of Conduct for Council of Chiefs

For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 19, Onerahtókha/April 2021) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) wishes to advise the community that representatives from the MCK Governance Project are engaging with the community to collect feedback on the Draft Code of Conduct for Council of Chiefs until this Friday, April 23rd at 4pm.

The MCK Governance Project is an on-going process to increase the effectiveness and accountability of the MCK Council of Chiefs, by strengthening the governance framework through enhanced policy, regulations and legislation.

“Kahnawa’kehró:non hold their leaders to the highest standards of professionalism,” said Gerald Taiaiake Alfred, Coordinator of the MCK Governance Project. “The Draft Code of Conduct document sets guidelines to ensure the Council of Chiefs’ actions and words meet the expectations of the community.”

Feedback can be provided by contacting Gerald Alfred (Gerald.Alfred@mck.ca or 514-805-7615) or Jessica Lazare (Jessica.Lazare@mck.ca). Any feedback received will remain anonymous.

The document can be viewed online at www.mckgovernance.ca.
