Chief Peter Paul attends Indian Gaming Conference

For immediate release

(Kahnawà:ke – 21, Onerahtókha/April 2008) Chief Peter Paul is in San Diego to attend the Indian Gaming '08 Trade Show and Convention. The event is organized by the National Indian Gaming Association.

The conference takes place from 20 to 23, Onerahtókha/April. It is expected that upwards of 200 Native nations, communities and government officials will be taking part.

In recent years, approximately 5,000 people annually have attended the convention.
