Lead Negotiators Meet to Discuss Seigneurie

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 26, Onerahtókha/April 2006) Grand Chief Michael Ahríhron Delisle, Jr. met yesterday with Chief Federal Negotiator Marc Lalonde to discuss issues related to the Seigneurie of Sault St. Louis (SSSL) negotiations.

“We’re pleased that the new Conservative government has recognized the importance of the Seigneurie grievance, and has kept Mr. Lalonde on as its Chief Negotiator,” said Chief Delisle. “While the teams have been meeting to discuss technical issues, this was our first face to face meeting since announcing the beginning of Seigneurie negotiations last November.”

The meeting took place in Montreal.
