Tsi Nahóten Karihwanákere No'nenk - News Release

Seigneurie meeting in Québec City

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 27, Onenrahtókha /April 27, 2005) Grand Chief Michael Ahríhron Delisle, Jr, along with the Seigneurie of Sault St.Louis Coordinating Team, will be in Québec City tomorrow to attend a meeting.

"We'll be meeting with representatives from Canada and Quebec to hear their position on the Seigneurie," said the Grand Chief. "This will give us an indication of where we are headed as the Seigneurie Exploratory Process nears its end."

The Seigneurie Exploratory Process is designed to examine an alternative way to settling Kahnawá:ke's long-standing grievance.

The nine-month Exploratory Process, which was supposed to end on March 31, 2005, was extended for a period of 8 to 12 weeks to allow Canada and Québec to examine the information presented to both parties during a series of joint meetings.

Kahnawakeró:non will be updated on the progress of this file in the near future and at the next community meeting on Tuesday May 31, 2005.
