MCK studying decision in Miller case

For Immediate Release

(Kahnawake – 30, Onerahtókha/April 2018) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) wishes to advise the community that it has received the decision in the case of Miller et al v. the Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke.

The MCK's Legal Services team has immediately begun the task of reviewing the judgment. The team will present its report to Chief & Council on Thursday morning, as Grand Chief Joseph Tokwiro Norton, along with Ietsenhaienhs Kahsennenhawe Sky-Deer (who holds the Membership Portfolio) and Rhonda Kirby (who is responsible for the proposed Kahnawà:ke Residency Law) are currently in Gatineau for the Assembly of First Nations Special Chiefs Assembly.

“Obviously we maintain the position that matters that are so integral to our identity have no business in outside courts,” stated Grand Chief Norton. “However, a decision on the case has been rendered. We are now taking the time to analyze the decision and will inform the community further in the coming days.”

There will be no further comment until the analysis is completed.
