MCK releases Report

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 24, Onerahthkó:wa/May 2006) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke (MCK) announced that copies of the report entitled, “Confluence: Rights in Haudenosaunee and Canadian Law,” are available to interested Kahnawa'kehró:non.

The Report is a result of a project contracted to Paul Williams, a lawyer/lecturer from Six Nations, as Phase II of a three-phase process exploring governance and jurisdiction in Kahnawá:ke. It follows a two-day treaty workshop held in Kahnawá:ke earlier this year.

The report speaks about how our relationship with the Europeans began - and evolved - over time.

With this report, the MCK hopes to better understand its responsibilities with respect to the community and its relationship with Canada.

“We felt that this is an important enough report that it should be shared with all Kahnawa'kehró:non, not just Chief and Council,” said Grand Chief Michael Ahríhron Delisle, Jr.

Copies can be obtained at the MCK offices or by contacting Dennis Diabo or Linda Delormier at 450-632-7500.
