Joint Operation Nets Firearms, Cash and Drugs

For Immediate Release

(Kahnawake - 29, Onerahtohkó:wa/May, 2012) A total of eight (8) suspects are now in custody in connection with an illegal firearms trafficking ring.

- Shadow Barnes (21 years old of Kahnawà:ke)
- Joey Ruck (29 years old of Havelock)
- Herby Peter Lahache (44 years old of Kahnawà:ke)
- Jonathan Williams - Mayo (30 years old of Kahnawà:ke)
- Damian Lee Porter (25 years old of Kahnawà:ke)
- Roy Beauvais (40 years old of Kahnawà:ke)
- Lincoln Rice (52 years old of Kahnawà:ke)
- Jason Eugene Bober (28 years old of Chateauguay)

All suspects were taken into custody without incident after officers and investigators executed arrest and search warrants in several locations in Kahnawà:ke and Chateauguay.

Today's operation netted over $22,000.00 in cash, 42 firearms, many of which were restricted. Non-restricted and some prohibited (illegally modified) firearms were also seized.

Approximately 2,500 (yet to be identified) tablets and a small amount of cocaine were seized from a private residence at the Chateauguay location.

Operation Flicker (Operation Lueur) involved approximately one hundred (100) officers and investigators from the Kahnawake Peacekeepers, the Joint Forces Firearms, Ammunition, and Explosives Trafficking Investigation Unit and the Aboriginal Combined Forces Special Enforcement Unit.

The investigation into the firearms trafficking ring began in January of 2012.
