PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

KEPO hosting Composting Workshop

(Kahnawake – 6, Ohiarí:ha/June 2013) The Kahnawà:ke Environment Protection Office would like to invite all community members to attend a Composting & Vermi-Composting Workshop on Monday, June 17th in the parking lot of the Kahnawà:ke Services Complex.

The workshop will take place during the lunch hour between noon to 1pm and will feature a special guest presenter from Montreal's environmental action program, Eco-Quartier, speaking on the subjects of composting and vermi-composting (worm composting).

As the workshop takes place during lunch, small snacks and beverages will be available free of charge. There will also be participation incentives, including counter-top compost collection bins and re-usable water bottles.

In the event of rain, the workshop will be moved to the Environment Protection Office on the Old Chateaugay Road.

For further information please contact the Environment Protection Office at 450-635-0600.

SUGGESTED INSTRUCTIONS FOR MEDIA
