Aerial Environmental Studies Being Conducted

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 11, Ohiarí:ha / June 2007) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke Environment Protection Office would like to inform the community that members of their staff will be taking part in aerial surveillance of the Territory today from 10 am until 2 pm.

Environmental Advisor Lynn Jacobs, and Environmental Technologist Holly McComber, will fly aboard a small aircraft to conduct further studies as part of their "Species at Risk Project", where they will be studying and photographing the wetland areas of Kahnawá:ke.

The aircraft will mostly fly over the wetland areas of the territory, but will periodically fly over the village. In the event of poor weather conditions for flying, the study will be postponed to a later date.

For further information, contact the Environment Protection Office at 450 635 0600.
