Seigneurie Report Made Available to Community

For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 19, Ohiarí:ha/June 2009) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) has announced that the final report on the Seigneurie of Sault St. Louis that it commissioned in 2007 is now available to the public.

The report contains community members' opinions on what type(s) of compensation they would like to see upon settlement of the Seigneurie land grievance.

The document was independently prepared by the Ratirhiwaro:roks Seigneurie Community Group and presented to Chief & Council, for the second time, on 8 Ohiarí:ha/June for formal acceptance.

The executive summary can be viewed at www.kahnawake.com. Copies of the report are available upon request.
