Tsi Nahóten Karihwanákere No'nenk News Release

Stuart Phillips' last day at MCK

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 12, Ohiari'kó:wa/July 2007) Today marks the final day on the job for Stuart Phillips as an elder/advisor on the Seigneury of Sault St. Louis land grievance file.

He has been instrumental in the creation and definition of the maps being used by the Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke in the long-standing grievance. Originally hired as a researcher in 1994, he spent countless hours in various libraries and government archives gathering information and clarifying, as much as possible, the original borders of the Seigneury.

Now that this work has been completed, the MCK's Seigneury team will be concentrating on community consultations.

The Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke would like to thank Mr. Phillips for his years of dedicated service and extends its best wishes.
