MCK says goodbye to long-serving employee

For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 13, Ohiarikhó:wa/July 2022) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) wishes to thank Felicia D'Ailleboust for her exemplary service as she heads to retirement.

Her last day of work is tomorrow (Thursday, July 14th), which is almost exactly 35 years to the day from her first day on July 13, 1987. She began her career as Secretary/Receptionist. After 14 years, she moved to MCK Legal Services in 2001, where she has performed her important role as Legal Secretary for the next 21 years.

Felicia has always been very active in activities with her co-workers, and her many friends and colleagues wish her all the best in her well-earned retirement.

“Bye, Felicia!”
