PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Distribution of IKEA overflow items tomorrow

(Kahnawake – 15, Ohiarikhó:wa/July 2024)

The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke, along with the Kateri Food Basket volunteers, are pleased to announce that the IKEA Distribution Center in Beauharnois is providing overflow products for distribution to Kahnawà:kehró:non at the Knights of Columbus Parking Lot tomorrow, Tuesday, July 16, beginning at 3:30pm and continuing while supplies last.

Items up for grabs include Storage Compartments (3 spaces), Shoe Cabs (3 spaces), Lazy Susans, Outdoor Furniture Covers, Chairs, Headboards, 18-piece Dishware Sets, Indoor Small Plants, Laundry Baskets, Rugs, Outdoor Pillows, Shelves, and Blackout Curtains.

When entering the Knights of Columbus parking lot, please use the west opening across from Tota Ma's and exit east towards the funeral home (see map below).

Community members are asked to remain in their vehicles and allow the volunteers to bring the products to their vehicles. The volunteers will do their best to keep traffic moving.

Due to the heat, the Kateri Food Basket volunteers will also give food donations to the community tomorrow at their location (old Grumpy's behind Village Variety) from 3:30 to 7pm.

For more information or questions, please contact Trina C. Diabo at 514-779-4756.
