Caucus to meet with Confederacy Chiefs

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 18, Ohiari'kó:wa/July 2007) Chiefs Martin Leborgne, Johnny Montour, Mike Bush and Keith Myiow are in Brantford, Ontario to take part in a meeting tomorrow (Thursday) between the Iroquois Caucus and Chiefs of the Iroquois Confederacy.

The meeting will be used as a forum to discuss the relationship between the two entities. As well, there will be discussions related to the Caucus' commitment to support the Confederacy's ID card.

On Saturday, the chiefs will take part in the annual Niagara Falls bridge crossing, which re-affirms our border crossing rights. At this time, representatives of the seven communities that comprise the Iroquois Caucus are expected to sign a declaration of guiding principles and formally announce their existence.
