Self-Isolation still required for incarcerated persons returning home

For Immediate Release

(Kahnawake – 5, Seskéha/August 2020) The COVID-19 Task Force wishes to remind persons who are returning home from incarceration that they are still required to self-isolate for a period of fourteen (14) days once they are released.

Family members are also asked to take note of this in order to comply with measures put in place to keep our elders and vulnerable population safe from the COVID-19 pandemic.

Information is available by clicking here and scrolling down to “Self-Isolation” tips.

The Task Force appreciates your cooperation in this matter.
