Seigneurie discussion dominates Council Meeting

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke - 8, Seskéha/August 2005) Discussion on The Seigneurie of Sault St.Louis dominated this morning's duly convened Council meeting. Chief and Council engaged in some in-depth conversation on the Seigneurie and the next steps in the Exploratory Process.

"We discussed the options and what we think the next steps should be," said Grand Chief Michael Ahríhron Delisle, Jr. "We have analyzed what Canada has presented to us, all of which were based on Kahnawá:ke's needs and issues that were presented to government officials in our joint meetings".

These options will be the topic of an upcoming meeting with senior officials within the Department of Indian Affairs scheduled for this Friday (12 Seskéha/August).

Chief and Council will release more information following the next council meeting, scheduled for Monday, 15 Seskéha/August. Further details will also be released to Kahnawakeró:non at the next community meeting on 30 Seskéha/August.
