Fieldwork on Tekakwitha Island

(Kahnawake – 16, Seskéha/August 2019)

The Kahnawà:ke Environment Protection Office (KEPO) wishes to inform the community that they will be undertaking fieldwork on Tekakwitha Island on Monday, August 19th as part of the Recreation Bay Restoration Project. Work will consist of excavating several test pits to take sediment quality samples. All excavations will be restored.

If you would like to know more about this activity or the Recreation Bay Restoration Project in general, please contact the Kahnawà:ke Environment Protection Office at 450-635-0600 or email environment.protection@mck.ca.
