Kahnawá:ke issues notice

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 7, Seskehkó:wa/September 2007) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke wishes to inform people in the Montreal region that a Kahnawá:ke man wanted on a warrant from the State of Massachusetts may be in the area.

John Canadyan, 54, is wanted in that state on charges of indecent assault and battery on an 11-year-old girl. The warrant was issued when he failed to appear in Chelsea District Court on August 20th to answer these charges.

He has been living in Massachusetts and had only recently returned to Kahnawá:ke. When the information on the warrant was revealed, he reportedly left the community.

“While Mr. Canadyan hasn’t been convicted yet, his actions have given us cause for concern,” said Grand Chief Michael Ahrírhon Delisle, Jr., referring to Canadyan fleeing the community. “We feel it is important to inform our neighbors that he may still be in the area. Anyone who has children will understand my motivation in this matter. “
