Byron Horne and MCK settle

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 19, Seskehkó:wa/September 2005) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke has announced that a settlement has been reached between Byron Horne and the MCK. All legal proceedings in the case, which had been filed in relation to the raid on a Kahnawá:ke still operation in March of 2002, have been dropped.

By agreement of both parties, the document is to be made public.

“I am happy that we’ve been able to settle out of court, saving us (the MCK) and the community a lot of time and energy,” said Grand Chief Michael Ahríhron Delisle, Jr. “I’m pleased that both parties have been able to reach an amicable resolution.”
