PRESS RELEASE

KLCC Announces that the Kahnawà:ke Tobacco Law resumes within the CDMP

For immediate release

(Kahnawake - 22, Seskehkó:wa/September 2022) The Kahnawà:ke Legislative Coordinating Commission (KLCC) wishes to inform the community that the draft Kahnawà:ke Tobacco Law has been revised. The Community Decision Making Process (CDMP) will now resume where it left off in 2016.

The Technical Drafting Committee for the MCK and Kahnawà:ke Tobacco Association (KTA) will engage the community to review only the highlighted sections within the draft law that need to be addressed in terms of legal issues and to provide the necessary consistency with other laws.

The draft law is available on the Kahnawà:ke Tobacco Law page of the KLCC website. The 30-day feedback will commence today and end on October 21, 2022, at 4pm. You may submit your feedback to Ratsénhaienhs Cody Diabo or Dennis Diabo via email at feedback@mck.ca, CDMP website Feedback page, telephone, or in-person.
