MCK receives proposed amendments to Kahnawá:ke Membership Law

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 5, Kenténha/October 2005) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke (MCK) wishes to announce that the Council of Elders has presented Chief and Council with a number of proposed amendments to the Kahnawá:ke Membership Law.

Some of the proposed amendments were introduced to community members at an information meeting held by the Council of Elders last night (Tuesday). It is our understanding that another meeting is being scheduled in order to inform community members on the complete list of proposed amendments.

The chiefs are reviewing/discussing the proposed amendments. The issue will be brought forth at the next Community Meeting scheduled for 29 Kentenkhó:wa/ November.
