Registration opens for Water Treatment Plant Operator course

(Kahnawake – 6, Kenténha/October 2016) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke would like to inform the community that registration opens for the Aboriginal Water Treatment Plant Operator course to be held in Kahnawà:ke in January 2017.

Members from First Nations communities across Quebec are eligible to apply for this nineteen (19) week course that will certify participants to operate water and waste treatment plants in their communities.

The training course is free and participants must possess a minimum Math Level 4 to register.

Interested applicants can contact Jean-Francois Guay by telephone at 877-321-1324 or by email at jfquay@mamit-innuat.com for more information and applications.
