Chiefs attending Iroquois Caucus

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 10, Kenténha/October 2007) Chiefs Mike Bush and Martin Leborgne are in Akwesasne to attend the Iroquois Caucus meetings today and tomorrow (Wednesday and Thursday) 10 and 11 Kenténha/October.

The meetings are being held at Kawenoke (Cornwall Island).

Items to be discussed include Border Crossing/ID Cards, a proposed Citizenship Conference, Nation Building, Communications/Media Protocols, and the National Gun Registry.

As well, there will be a discussion on the role of the Caucus as a lobbying group.

Chiefs Bush and Leborgne are expected back in the office on Friday, 12 Kenténha/October.
