Grand Chief to meet with Québec Native Affairs Minister

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 20, Kenténha/October 2005) Grand Chief Michael Ahríhron Delisle, Jr. is scheduled to meet with Québec Native Affairs Minister Geoff Kelly tomorrow (Friday, 21 Kenténha/October). The meeting will be held in Chateauguay at noon.

“We have had very little contact with Québec in the past several months,” said Chief Delisle. “Hopefully, this meeting will be the start of improved communication between our governments.”

Mr. Kelly’s entourage is expected to include André Maltais, his new Assistant Deputy Minister.

Aside from a couple of brief conversations, the two have not met on an official basis since 18 March/Enniskó:wa, shortly after Mr. Kelly was appointed Native Affairs Minister.
