Library Move is Official

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 7, Kentenkhó:wa/November 2007) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke has announced that the building that formerly housed the Education Center has been officially designated as the new home of the Skawenni:io Tsi Iewennanhnotákhwa Kahnawá:ke Library.

The announcement comes after the MCK's Finance, Administration and Operations Committee committed approximately $160,000 to renovate the building. The MCK will cover all expenses up front, while the Library's portion of the renovation costs will be negotiated.

A contribution agreement will be developed as soon as possible, and the financial responsibilities of both the Library and the MCK will be clearly defined.

The MCK's Capital Unit has committed to take on the work, if their schedule allows. If not, the services of a contractor will be secured.

"If all goes according to plan, the Library should be in its new home by spring 2008," said Chief Johnny Montour, a member of the Finance, Administration and Operations Committee.
