PRESS RELEASE

Peacekeepers warn of texting scam from CRA

For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 17, Kentenhkó:wa/November 2022) The Kahnawake Peacekeepers have been receiving reports of a possible scam from several community members.

According to the complainants, some residents have received a text message from what appears to be the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) offering an anti-inflation benefit. The text message (see sample below) has the recipients name as well as their correct date of birth and social insurance number. There is also a link to a website in the message. It is not certain how the suspects obtained their target’s personal information.
