All aboard the Holiday Train!

(Kahnawake – 18, Kentenhkó:wa/November 2016) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) is pleased to announce the 12th annual Canadian Pacific Holiday Train stop in Kahnawà:ke on Friday, November 25th. The train is scheduled to arrive at Adirondack Junction at approximately 6:45pm.

There will be live entertainment, featuring Jonathon Roy, Doc Walker and Kelly Prescott. Volunteers will also be on site to accept donations and handout hot chocolate and healthy snacks.

All cash donations will go to the Kahnawà:ke Christmas Basket and all food donations to the Kateri Food Bank . Over the past 18 years the Holiday Train has raised millions in cash and tons of food to support families in need.

To reduce traffic volume in the area, the MCK is providing a free Shuttle Bus service departing from the town garage at 5:45pm to bring passengers to the Adirondack Junction and return after the event.
