PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Selection delay for Essential Snow Removal Program for Elderly and Disabled

(Kahnawake – 30, Kentenhkó:wa/November 2023)

The Client Based Services Unit of the Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke is informing the community that the selection process for the Essential Snow Removal Program for elderly and disabled community members is delayed until next week, as a result of the deadline extension for applications earlier this month.

The service was originally slated to begin December 1st. Due to the delay, the service will commence once notifications have been issued to the selected applicants, which is expected to happen next week.

For further information, please contact Caroline McComber at 450 638-0500 for full details on eligibility criteria and services provided.
