Kahnawá:ke To Begin Seigneurie Negotiations

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 17, Kentenhkó:wa/November 2005) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke (MCK) would like to inform the community that the MCK has agreed to begin negotiations with Canada on the Seigneurie land grievance.

“I believe that the basic principles that will lead Kahnawá:ke to an acceptable resolution of this long-standing grievance have been established,” said Grand Chief Michael Ahríhron Delisle, Jr. “I have confidence that our people will embrace the fact that this is the beginning of a more prosperous future for all Kahnawakehró:non.”

The MCK will continue to engage and involve the community throughout the negotiation process and welcomes any feedback or comments Kahnawakehró:non may have.
